

Reflection Questions for Summer Reading

1. What about the book(s) kept you reading?
2. What about the book(s) made you want to stop reading?
3. Did you ever put off doing something so you could read one of your books?

4. Which moments in the stories made you gasp, cry, or laugh out loud? Why?
5. Were there lines/scenes in the stories that you immediately wanted to share with someone? With whom did you want to share them? Why?

6. Which book would you like to see as a movie? Who would you cast in the film?
7. Which character from one of your books would you most like as a friend? Why?
8. How does the story's world remind you of your world?
9. What new place did you visit through your reading? Tell me about it.

10. Did your reading cause you to want to learn more about something? What?

Please note that students can use the OverDrive, Libby app on their iPads, Chromebooks to access North Shore Middle School's Digital Library & Nassau County Public Libraries' collection of digital and audio books.

Two 'just right' books I might want to read this summer are:

_____ by _____

and

_____ by _____
