This "brag" sheet is designed to enable your recommender to write an effective letter of recommendation. These questions are all optional, but the more material you give, the better your letter will introduce you as a unique individual.

- List three (3) words you would use to describe yourself, and explain each with a few sentences.
- Is there anything unusual about your family or living situation? (Cultural background, travel, size, crises, language spoken in the home, etc.)
- Are you excited to explore a particular academic area in college? If yes, which area of study and why?
- Are there any events, circumstances, or experiences in your life related to your grades, admission test scores or high school experience that you would like colleges to be aware of?
- Give an example of a comment a teacher may write about you, and explain why you have chosen it.
- Which course(s) have you enjoyed most? Why?
- Which course(s) have given you the most difficulty? Why?
